“ Our deepest condolences to all of you. I have such beautiful amazing memories of our parents going to the beach in bay city. Visiting your home and they played cards while us kids played together. We are so blessed to have had such wonderful amazing beautiful parents. I remember your mom in a black bathing suite and her black hair and red lipstick, omg I thought she was a movie star lol my love and prayers go out to all of you. In case you don't remember i am socorro and Vincent Gutierrez daughter. Linda

“ It saddens my heart to hear that my aunt Josie has passed on, I do have good memories of her as a child going over to spend time with my cousins. I can still see her smile she would give and her kindness to me.
My prayers and thoughts are with the family for strength and harmony. through this difficult and painful time . Love you all
Your cousin, Theresa
